Plea to clear all obstructions on city roads

Mysuru, Sept. 12- Dasara is almost here. It will begin on Oct. 3. Only 21 days to go and the tourists will start arriving. Are the local authorities ready to take on the responsibility in a responsible way?

Roads, UGD, water supply are the main concern of the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC). Are they geared up to the task? As of now we do not see any sense of urgency in what MCC and other related organisations are doing. They often wait for the 11th hour under the excuse that funds are not released or such lame excuses. Incompetence of officers who have no fear of punitive action for their dereliction of duty, coupled with lack of supervision, are the causes for many fault-lines in the works connected with Dasara.

To give just one example, it could be seen that the recent trimming of trees and chopping of the protruding tree branches on the roads that are illuminated. The felled trees and the chopped off branches are left lying aside close to the road endangering the pedestrian and the vehicular traffic.

District Minister reviews situation; Ban orders clamped; Educational institutions closed today

Nagamangala, Sept. 12 (BS)- Tension prevailed in Nagamangala, Mandya district, last evening after violence broke out during the Ganesha idol immersion procession. Approximately 20 shops were damaged and 52 individuals have been arrested in connection with the unrest.

Home Minister Dr. G. Parameshwar confirmed that the arrests followed the incident, where miscreants vandalised shops and set motorbikes on fire after a confrontation between two groups during the procession. Fortunately, there have been no reported casualties.

Vijayendra slams Govt. for targeting 'Star of Mysore' and 'Mysuru Mithra'

Vijayendra

Mysuru, Sept. 12 (BCT)- State BJP President B.Y. Vijayendra has expressed outrage on social media platform 'X' (formerly Twitter) over the State Government's discrimination in providing Government advertisements to 'Star of Mysore' and its sister publication 'Mysuru Mithra'.

In his post, Vijayendra emphasised that 'Star of Mysore' and 'Mysuru Mithra' have a long-standing history in Mysuru, serving as guardians of the city's rich heritage while maintaining their journalistic integrity.

These publications, with their vast readership, have been pivotal in exposing the MUDA land scam, which gained national attention. Additionally, they have consistently highlighted local issues and the Government's mismanagement and anti-people governance, providing transparent reporting to the public, he posted.

"The Congress Government, already entangled in numerous scandals, has reportedly retaliated against these newspapers by imposing an unofficial ban on releasing Government advertisements to them. In a democratic system, the Government should prioritise and display the maturity to accept media criticism and reports without bias, and with a reflective, introspective attitude," Vijayendra said.

Dark days of Emergency

"Expecting only positive reports that praise the Government while viewing critical coverage with hostility does not reflect a healthy mindset. Instead, it sends a troubling signal of authoritarianism. The Congress Government, still behaving as though it hasn't moved past the dark days of the Emergency, is casting a crooked eye on the media that dares to expose the State's illegalities and irregularities," he posted.

"The CM, who holds the Information and Publicity Department under his direct control, must explain how justifiable it is for his Government to wield the power of advertisements against these newspapers in his own home district. Failing to address this will send a clear message to the entire media community that exposing MUDA-like scams will directly lead to Governmental retaliation," he said.

In his post, Vijayendra included screenshots of 'Star of Mysore' and 'Mysuru Mithra' featuring reports on the MUDA scam and has tagged Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Union Home Minister Amit Shah and BJP National President J.P. Nadda. Within hours of the post, it garnered 1,981 views, 26 reposts, 3 comments and 66 likes.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

IT IS ESSENTIAL TO FORGET: I was frantically searching my misplaced bank passbook. Of late this is a recurring phenomenon with several other day-to-day items, both trivial and important. My family always attribute it to my advancing age. It was always very uncomfortable to be reminded that one's memory is weakening due to aging, fearing the situation in the years to come.

I pondered over the issue again and again and started convincing myself that after all human brain also is like any electronic gadget using memory chip which requires intermittent deleting and flushing of accumulated junk and spams, to reclaim the valuable storage space. Unfortunately, we humans are not bestowed with such a clearing mechanism in the form of an app which we can activate, at our sweet will, to purge out the accumulated unwanted overcrowded memory. I resorted to meditation, relaxation techniques, laughing clubs and so on with the intention to still my mind thereby enabling the memory to revitalise itself. As my forgetfulness triumphed over my various unsuccessful attempts, mocking at the attempts of beating the nature, I was more and more uncomfortable searching for another misplaced object of importance.

It is at this juncture that I came across two valuable advices of the great ancient philosopher, Plato. First of the advises is "forget whatever good you have done to others" and the second gem is "forget what harm others have done to you." When we forget the good, we have done to others, it will relieve us of the expectation of return favour or disappointment when they don't reciprocate manifesting ill-will towards them, driving us to ponder the issue over and over again cramping our memory. Similarly, when you forget the harm and insult others have caused to you, we will be shedding the huge unwanted baggage of anger, revenge and ill will which would have been crowding our memory eternally.

Definitely Philosopher Plato's advices are easier said than done. But, imagine if we can really inculcate to "forget" as advised by Plato, we will definitely be de-clogging our memory, facilitating ample memory capacity probably doing away the need for searching the passbooks again.

Woman finds pinecone art in woods

Massachusetts: A woman taking a walk in the woods with her dog came across a mysterious pinecone formation she believes might be an art installation.

Margaret Zeitouny said she and her dog were walking along a trail in Waltham's Cedarwood Park when she came across a circle of pinecones arranged like a mandala.

She posted a photo of pinecones to a local Facebook group, sparking commenters to offer theories including alien activity and satanic rituals.

Zeitouny said she thinks its more likely the pinecone circle is someone's art project, possibly from a student at nearby Brandeis University.

"It's a circle pattern with a repetitive design. Making them is a meditative thing. I don't know if the artist is coming up and checking on it, but I am. I want to take a picture a day until it's not there anymore," she said.

Blindfolded basketball shot breaks world record

Scottsdale: A man with a talent for basketball trick shots sank an underhand shot blindfolded from a distance of 60 feet. Jeremy Ware, 32, of Scottsdale, earned his third Guinness World Records certificate after previously earning the records for most squats on a Swiss ball in one minute, 37, and farthest basketball shot made backwards, 85 feet and 5 inches.

He said his latest basketball record was more difficult. "Essentially I'm blindfolded when I'm throwing backwards but I still have a reference point and am able to look backwards, but for this one it's a little bit different, it's completely dark," he told Guinness World Records.

Ware learned that his record for the farthest basketball shot made backwards was recently broken and he is currently considering making an attempt to take it back.

Stray dog menace near Ideal Jawa Rotary School

Sir,

The situation near Ideal Jawa Rotary School on Krishna Vilas Road has become both bizarre and alarming, with eight to ten stray dogs frequently roaming the area, posing a serious threat to children and the general public.

This stretch is extremely busy, with constant foot traffic and a nearby private hospital. These stray dogs, known for their aggressive behaviour, have already attacked pedestrians and motorcyclists.

In the early morning hours, when senior citizens often go for walks, these dogs bark excessively and have attacked several walkers. Additionally, dogs sleeping near the hospital's parking area make it difficult for patients and staff to move freely.

A 2021 survey highlighted in the 'State of Pet Homelessness Index', indicates that India has approximately 62 million stray dogs. With their population rapidly increasing, stray dog-related incidents have also risen significantly.

Despite numerous reports of dog bites and attacks, the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) seems to have turned a blind eye to this growing problem.

It is high time the stray dog menace is addressed. The MCC, which has otherwise been proactive in city welfare, must now ensure the safety of residents and children in this area by controlling the stray dog population.

Mysuru techies demand direct KSRTC buses to Electronics City

Software employees say no to trains; Prefer direct buses via NICE Road for Mysuru-Bengaluru commute

Mysuru, Sept. 12 (BLU&VNS)- Mysuru-based software professionals are urging the Karnataka State Road Transport Corporation (KSRTC) to launch direct daily bus services from Mysuru to Bengaluru's Electronics City.

With most tech employees now on hybrid work schedules — two days in the office and three at home — they endure the inconvenience of getting off at Deepanjalinagar's Satellite Bus Stand, then navigating through multiple Bengaluru Metropolitan Transport Corporation (BMTC) buses to Majestic, Silk Board, Bommanahalli and finally, Electronics City. The long and fragmented commute is a constant struggle.

While the Bangalore Metro Rail Corporation Limited (BMRCL) is still dragging its feet on opening the Yellow Line of Namma Metro, which would link Rashtreeya Vidyalaya (RV) Road to Bommasandra via Jayadeva Hospital, Central Silk Board and Electronics City, the current traffic situation is chaotic. The congestion near Silk Board and Electronics City junctions is so severe that even professionals leaving Mysuru at 5 am can't reach their offices on time.

While several trains travel to Bengaluru daily, techies prefer KSRTC buses as they can log in and work during the journey. Travelling by train during peak morning hours is challenging, with many passengers, including Government employees, crowding the coaches, often forcing techies to stand throughout the trip. Additionally, trains are occasionally halted for extended periods at outer signals, causing further inconvenience.

Deploying direct buses from Mysuru would ease the commute for techies and others, helping them bypass Bengaluru's traffic congestion and reach Electronics City via the NICE Road.

"A considerable number of people commute from Mysuru to Electronics City. We have already conducted a demand survey and created a WhatsApp group where many have confirmed the need for direct buses. This information has been conveyed to the KSRTC Divisional Controller via e-mail," said Yogendra, a Mysuru resident.

Proposal currently under review

"We have received multiple requests to operate direct buses to Electronics City, and the proposal is currently under review. However, providing daily direct buses to this location is not feasible as the Corporation would face losses with only a small number of passengers. We are open to extending the service if at least 50 passengers consistently travel each day. A demand survey has been requested, and until then, we can offer a one-way service from Mysuru to Electronics City on Mondays and a return service on Fridays."

—H.T. Veeresh, Divisional Controller, KSRTC Mysuru Division

District Administration invites sponsorship

It is a money-minting scheme, chides MLC A.H. Vishwanath

Mysuru, Sept. 12 (BLU&VNS)- The District Administration has extended an open invitation for the companies and industrialists to bid for the title sponsorship for the Jumboo Savari, cultural programmes at the Mysore Palace and other programmes during the forthcoming Dasara festival.

A meeting to discuss on the title sponsorship with the industrialists was held at Hotel Lalitha Mahal Palace under the chairmanship of District In-charge Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa, here yesterday.

Speaking on the occasion, Mahadevappa said that the celebrations was a low key affair last year owing to drought, however with the State receiving copious rainfall and better crop yield the State Government has decided to celebrate this year's Dasara on a grand scale.

Stating that the companies can gain publicity by sponsoring the Dasara events, Mahadevappa mentioned that companies joining hands with the State Government would help in organising the 10-day event with grandeur.

"There is no binding on the companies to sponsor the events. They are open to come on board on their own," he clarified.

The District In-charge Minister also mentioned that the District Administration had received Rs. 1.75 crore towards sponsorship in the previous Dasara and this year they were expecting it to increase.

The sponsorship for Jumboo Savari will cost Rs. 2 crore which will be awarded to a single company. The names of the sponsor company will be mentioned on publicity boards installed at all the entrances of the Mysore Palace and also on tickets; Ambaari sponsorship will cost Rs. One crore with the sponsors having an opportunity to gain publicity during the cultural programmes at Mysore Palace, Yuva Dasara and during the Torchlight Parade to be held in Bannimantap; Platinum category sponsorship will cost Rs. 75 lakh with sponsoring companies getting ample space for advertising during Yuva Sambhrama and Food Mela; Gold sponsorship available for Rs. 50 lakh, will provide the opportunity to advertise during Dasara Flower Show, Food Mela and Film Festival. Silver Sponsors (Rs. 25 lakh) can advertise during Dasara Sports, 10-day programme in front of Srikanteshwara Swamy Temple in Nanjangud and at important illuminated locations.

The others who sponsor between Rs. 5 lakh and Rs. 15 lakh will be allowed to advertise during Women and Children Dasara, Raitha Dasara and during performing arts events at Kalamandira and Jaganmohan Palace. LED advertising boards will be also be placed at various locations including Jayachamaraja Wadiyar Circle, Chamaraja Circle, Ramaswamy Circle and V.V.Puram Police Station junction. The ad space will also be provided at the Deputy Commissioner's office, ZP Office, Mysore Zoo, Manipal Hospital Circle, Mysuru Taluk Office, Mysuru City Corporation including the main thoroughfares of the city.

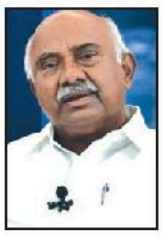
Representatives from over 100 companies attended the meeting.

Deputy Commissioner G. Lakshmikanth Reddy, City Police Commissioner Seema Latkar, SP N. Vishnuvardhan, DCP (Crime and Traffic) S. Jahnavi, ZP CEO K.M. Gayathri were present.

District Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa addressing a meeting to discuss on the title sponsorship for Dasara with the industrialists at Hotel Lalitha Mahal Palace in the city yesterday, as DC G. Lakshmikanth Reddy, City Police Chief Seema Latkar, DCP S. Jahnavi, SP N. Vishnuvardhan and ZP CEO K.R. Gayathri look on.

MLC Vishwanath ridicules sponsorship scheme

Taking a dig at the State Government for inviting sponsorship ahead of this year's Dasara, MLC A.H. Vishwanath termed it as 'money minting' scheme.



Vishwanath

Speaking to media persons, Vishwanath questioned the need for inviting sponsorship when the State Government announced to sanction Rs. 40 crore for the 10-day event.

"During my tenure as District In-charge Minister in 2003, we had invited sponsorship as the State was reeling under severe drought. While the farmer organisations and others protested against grand Dasara celebrations, I convinced the then Chief Minister S.M. Krishna to celebrate Dasara, without spending from the exchequer. Since then it has become a habit for inviting sponsorship," he said.

Three themes proposed: Karnataka Sambhrama, Constitution of India, Women's Education

Mysuru, Sept. 12 (MTY&BCT)- Preparations are progressing rapidly for annual Dasara Flower Show, a major highlight of the festival. This year's exhibition promises to dazzle with a vibrant display of blooms, enveloped in the subtle fragrance of millions of flowers that will transport visitors to a kaleidoscopic world.

The Horticulture Department has cultivated flowers in one lakh pots, showcasing 35 different varieties. The Flower Show will take place at Kuppanna Park (Nishad Bagh) near Hardinge Circle in Mysuru City from Oct. 3 to either Oct. 12 or 13.

Visitors can expect a stunning array of flower plants in 35 to 40 different colours and varieties. The flowers have been nurtured over 30 to 120 days at various nurseries and are now primed for the exhibition.

This year's Flower Show during Navarathri will feature over one lakh flower pots, showcasing a diverse array of plants. The flower pots are being maintained at various locations, including the Central Nursery, Kuppanna Park, Government Guest House, Jaladarshini Division, Curzon Park, Gordon Park, and the Horticulture Division at the Dasara Exhibition Grounds.

Some of the exotic varieties that have been included this year include Poinsettia, Kalanchoe, Curcuma, Oxalis, Anthuriums, Hydrangea, Rose, Azelia, Dancing Doll, African Violet, Dis Buds, Impatience, Lisianthus,

The Glass House, a standout feature of this year's Dasara Flower Show, is set to captivate visitors. This year, the theme will celebrate the 50th anniversary of Karnataka's naming, with three proposed themes: 'Karnataka Sambhrama,' 'Constitution of India' and 'Women's Education.'

The final theme will be selected within the next two days, with 'Karnataka Sambhrama' as the frontrunner.

Additionally, the Glass House will showcase flower arrangements highlighting various motifs such as environmental conservation, Olympic gold medalists, the T20 World Cup, and Kuppalli Venkatappa Puttappa's (Kuvempu) House, among others.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, Senior Assistant Director of Horticulture Habiba Nishath revealed that tenders for the flower and fruit show have been solicited through e-procurement, with the deadline for submission set for Sept. 18.

"This year, tenders are being invited for entry fees, food stalls and amusement parks. Meanwhile, all preliminary preparations for the exhibition are progressing smoothly and all processes are anticipated to be completed within this week," she said.

Governor seeks details of MUDA's Rs. 387 cr. works in Varuna, Srirangapatna

Projects based on CM's oral instructions making MUDA bankrupt, says petitioner to Governor

Mysuru, Sept. 12 (RK& BCT)- A new controversy is brewing even as the Karnataka High Court is hearing a petition concerning Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot's sanction for prosecuting Chief Minister Siddaramaiah over the allocation of 14 sites by the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) to Siddaramaiah's wife, B.M. Parvathi, at a 50:50 ratio.

This controversy signals the possibility of another clash between the Raj Bhavan and the State Government.

MUDA has launched projects worth a staggering Rs. 387 crore in the Varuna Assembly Constituency in Mysuru District, represented by CM Siddaramaiah and in the Srirangapatna Assembly Constituency in Mandya District, represented by Congress MLA Rameshbabu Bandisiddegowda.

P.S. Nataraj, a retired Assistant Director of Urban Planning at MUDA and a resident of Brindavan Layout in Mysuru, filed a written complaint with the Governor on Aug. 27.

In his complaint, Nataraj alleges that MUDA has undertaken these projects based on the Chief Minister's oral instructions, thereby disregarding the Karnataka Urban Development Authorities Act, 1987, particularly Sections 15 and 25.

Misuse of power alleged

Despite facing financial constraints, MUDA has focused on massive projects exclusively in these two Constituencies, raising allegations of power misuse, he stated.

Thaawarchand Gehlot

Shalini Rajneesh

Nataraj contended in his complaint that although MUDA lacked sufficient funds, the projects were initiated solely due to the Chief Minister's verbal directives. He has called for an investigation by the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI).

In response to Nataraj's complaint, Governor ThaawarchandGehlot, after reviewing the matter, deemed the allegations serious. On Sept. 5, he directed State Chief Secretary Shalini Rajneesh to submit a comprehensive report along with the necessary documents as soon as possible.

Proposal tabled on Sept. 6, 2023

Following the Chief Minister's oral instructions, a proposal was presented at the MUDA General Meeting on Sept. 6, 2023, regarding the implementation of various development projects in 24 villages within the Varuna Assembly Constituency.

The complainant (Nataraj) has reported that the development projects in the following villages were discussed: Banchallihundi, Chikkayyana Chhatra, Tandavapura, Yechagalli, Hejjige, Kempisiddanahundi, Thoremavu, Basavanapura, Hallididdi, Maraluru-Goddanapura, Hallikerehundi, Kaalisiddanahundi, Yandalli, Uttanahalli, Lalitadrinagara (South), Shanthaveri Gopalagowda Nagar, Lal Bahadur Shastri Nagar, Eligehundi, Devalapura, Hadajana, Marase, Makanahundi, Halagayyanahundi, Chikkahalli and Vajmangala villages.

After a detailed discussion at the MUDA General Meeting, it was decided to submit a proposal seeking Government guidance for carrying out the necessary development projects in the villages listed. Nataraj alleged in his complaint that approval for these projects was granted swiftly, with an order issued within just two months.

CBI probe urged

Nataraj has called for the suspension of officials misusing public funds and the filing of criminal charges against them. He also urged that the CBI conduct an investigation to prevent MUDA from becoming financially insolvent.

Following complaints from activists T.J. Abraham, Snehamayi Krishna and S.P. Pradeep Kumar regarding the MUDA site allocation case involving the Chief Minister's wife Parvathi, the Governor has granted permission to prosecute CM Siddaramaiah.

The Governor has now written to the Chief Secretary requesting detailed information about the multi-crore projects in both the Chief Minister's Constituency and MLA Rameshbabu Bandisiddegowda's Constituency. This development appears to signal the onset of another potential conflict between the Government and the Raj Bhavan.

Govt. advertisements are tax-payers money: Srivatsa

Mysuru, Sept. 12 (RK&BCT)- Joining State BJP President B.Y. Vijayendra in criticising the State Government for its discrimination in providing advertisements to Star of Mysore and its sister publication Mysuru Mithra, Krishnaraja MLA T.S. Srivatsa announced that he will personally meet Chief Secretary Shalini Rajneesh and Hemanth Nimbalkar, Commissioner of Information and Public Relations.

T.S. Srivatsa

"I will write to these officers and meet them in person to address this issue. The State Government should not resort to such tactics to arm-twist the media," Srivatsa told Star of Mysore this morning.

He said, "Government advertisements are meant to publicise Government policies and schemes. These are funded by public tax money, not by any political party's funds. If the Government denies advertisements to widely circulated newspapers, how will its programmes reach the people? The Congress Government should not have taken this step."

Srivatsa further added, "The BJP State President has already expressed outrage over the Government's authoritarian approach. We condemn and protest this attitude collectively. It reflects the Congress party's mentality after coming to power."

CM's petition questioning Governor's prosecution sanction

Advocate A.M. Singhvi presents second round of submissions

Bengaluru, Sept.12 (DM)- The Karnataka High Court this noon resumed hearing the petition filed by Chief Minister Siddaramaiah challenging Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot's sanction for his prosecution in the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) site scam.

A.M. Singhvi

At the start of the hearing, Senior Supreme Court counsel Abhishek Manu Singhvi, representing CM Siddaramaiah, presented arguments against the Governor's decision to sanction the prosecution.

A Single-Judge Bench led by Justice M. Nagaprasanna had previously adjourned the case on Sept. 9, rescheduling the arguments for today, Sept. 12.

The hearing was in progress and the Court took a lunch break when we went to the press.

Abhishek Manu Singhvi is presenting the second round of submissions. The Bench is most likely to reserve its judgement, but sources also say that it might pronounce the order following the conclusion of the arguments and counter-arguments.

The verdict in this case would be decisive for the Congress Government in Karnataka as well as for Chief Minister Siddaramaiah. It is also crucial for Governor Gehlot.

If the Bench upholds the writ petition and quashes the order by the Governor, it would be a great embarrassment for him. The verdict would also impact the slew of petitions before him against Congress leaders.

If the Governor's order is upheld, CM Siddaramaiah will suffer a setback. The lower court will order the filing of an FIR against him and legal proceedings will begin against him. The demand for Siddaramaiah's removal from the CM's post would grow stronger. The BJP would intensify its agitation and celebrate the court order if it goes against the CM.

Excels in Karate Championship

Gandharvika Shastry, a 1st PUC student of JSS Pre-University College, Saraswathipuram, practising Karate under Master N.G. Sivdas and Coach Prajwal, secured Silver Medal in Kumite (U-19) category of the District-level Sports Meet held at Yuvaraja's College in city on Sept. 11. She is seen with Parashivamurthy of Marimallappa's College Physical Education Department.

Plea to clear all obstructions on city roads

As a result of this negligent, irresponsible way of working, many accidents occur and cause inconvenience to people who use the roads. After completing a work, the debris, tree branches etc., should be cleared immediately.

The Railway Board has found that one of the reasons for Railway accidents is the workmen leaving loose engineering parts, rail materials and other equipment in the vicinity of the tracks. In some cases these come in handy for miscreants to threaten the safety of train operations. Likewise, if the MCC workers leave behind road-cuttings without filling them, drain coverings not put back or leave the manhole to overflow, there is a danger to drivers and pedestrians.

It is hoped the MCC and the departments concerned will execute these works with responsibility, say tax payers who complained about these lapses on the part of the MCC to our office.

Tension grips Nagamangala

Minister Cheluvarayaswamy stated, "I have discussed the incident with the Chief Minister and Home Minister. The Police have made several arrests and I have instructed them to conduct a thorough investigation to ensure that those responsible are held accountable."

Holiday for educational institutions

As a precautionary measure to ensure student safety, the Nagamangala Taluk Administration has declared a day's holiday for schools, colleges and Anganwadis in the town today. This decision was announced in a notification issued by the Tahsildar.

The incident

Tensions flared when a mob of youths reportedly threw stones, footwear and bottles at the procession, wielded swords and hurled petrol bombs.

The unrest intensified as the mob targeted commercial establishments, setting various items and new vehicles on fire after forcibly removing them from an automobile showroom. In response, the Police used canes to disperse the crowd and restore order.

FIRs filed, ban orders imposed

Superintendent of Police (SP) Mallikarjun Baladandi reported that six First Information Reports (FIRs) have been filed in connection with the incident, based on evidence from CCTV footage Agriculture and Mandya District In-charge Minister N. Cheluvarayaswamy reviewing the situation at Nagamangala this morning.

As a precaution, prohibitory orders have been enforced under Section 163 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS) in Nagamangala from Sept. 11 to 10 pm on Sept. 14. The situation is currently under control.

Several individuals, including Police Sub-Inspector (PSI) Ravikumar and other personnel, as well as some youths participating in the procession, sustained injuries from the stones and bottles hurled at them. They have been admitted to various hospitals for treatment. Deputy Commissioner Dr. Kumara, DIGP (Southern Range) Dr. M.B. Boralingaiah and other senior officers are currently stationed at the site.

Idols immersed

The two Ganesha idols, one from Nagamangala town and the other from Badarikoppal, which were initially intended for immersion at Sulekere, 2 km from the town, were ultimately immersed at Hampe Arasana Kere in Nagamangala. This change was facilitated by Police Officers who persuaded the organisers of the Ganesha festival.

How it erupted?

The trouble began when the procession reached a dargah at Mandya Circle on Mysuru Road, and youths of a different faith allegedly objected to the procession with a music troupe.

When the procession group insisted on continuing as they had in previous years, despite the objections, it led to a verbal altercation. This confrontation prompted the Police to use mild force to disperse the youths.

In response to the unrest, Armed Reserve Police platoons have been deployed and are patrolling the town. Commercial establishments have closed, and vehicles travelling towards the Bengaluru-Hassan Highway and those coming from Mandya and Mysuru were stranded outside the town until the situation was brought under control.

Water contamination: One dies, several fall ill

Bherya/Saligrama, Sept. 12- One person has died, while over 20 others have fallen ill following diarrhoea and vomiting, after consuming contaminated water at Bettahalli in Saligrama taluk in the district.

The deceased is identified as Govindegowda (65) of the village, while those who have fallen ill, have been admitted to the hospital.

The Gram Panchayat officers and staff are being blamed for their lackadaisical attitude in addressing the complaints related to drinking water supply and supplying contaminated water through taps, that led to the incident.

As some of the villagers who consumed water experienced vomiting and diarrhoea, they were admitted to Community Health Centre at Saligrama. However the condition of Govindegowda, who was one among those admitted at the health centre, worsened further, and he was shifted to Hassan District Hospital, where he did not respond to the treatment and died later, it is said.

Following the information, a team of doctors from the Taluk Hospital rushed to the village and screened the health condition of the villagers. Some of them found vulnerable to water borne infection, were shifted in an ambulance to Saligrama hospital and later to K.R. Hospital in Mysuru city. A team of doctors led by Taluk Health Officer (THO) is camping at Bettahalli and conducting a comprehensive inquiry into the incident.

MLA D. Ravishankar visited the village and consoled the family members of the deceased Govindegowda.

Later, the MLA said, the Officers are inquiring into the root cause of the incident and suitable measures will be taken, once the report is received in this regard.

The MLA took the Officers to task and instructed them to take steps to clean the drainages, pipeline and water tank to supply potable drinking water, to check the recurrence of the incident in the future.

Merging passion with powerful storytelling

Mysuru-based Director Islahuddin believes in movie-making beyond the ordinary

The Kannada film industry, popularly known as Sandalwood, has recently witnessed a surge in films across diverse genres, breaking away from the conventional commercial 'masala' formula. Films like Aclıar & Co, Daredevil Mustafa, Hostel Hudugaru Bekagiddare, Tagaru Palya and Orchestra Mysuru have been warmly embraced by audiences, proving that the industry is in safe hands with the new generation of filmmakers stepping up to the challenge.

Joining this fresh wave of talent is N.S. Islahuddin from Mysuru, the director of the Kannada film Anna. Despite hardships, Islahuddin successfully directed a few films, including Nodi Swamy Ivanu Irode Heege, starring Rishi.

Known for inspiring many aspiring actors and technicians, Islahuddin is now back with his latest venture Anna, which tells the story of eight-year-old Mahadeva. Set in the 1980s, the film portrays the struggles of a poor family that cannot afford even rice (Anna* in Kannada).

Islahuddin also pioneered Kannada's first-ever crowd-funded film, Jaagadoreyuthade (Spaces for Rent), an adaptation of Maxim Gorky's play The Lower Depths.

Star of Mysore caught up with the talented moviemaker Islahuddin during his recent visit to Mysuru for a brief chat.

Excerpts…

Star of Mysore (SOM): How do you feel about 'Anna,' a non-commercial movie, being accepted by all sections of the audience?

Islahuddin: I am elated. Being embraced by all sections of society feels like a blessing. Our movie doesn't take sides — except for the side of the hungry. 'Anna' is merely a metaphor. While rice, as a staple food for billions, holds deep significance, our story is set in the 1980s when rice was a luxury beyond the reach of the common man. Today, 'Anna' could symbolise any unfulfilled desire of the underprivileged.

SOM: What inspired you to choose a subject like 'Anna?'

Islahuddin: The story found me. It is based on a Kannada Sahitya Akademi award-winning short story by Hanur Chennappa, who had previously served as Assistant Director, Department of Kannada and Culture in Mysuru. The team was already in place, and I joined towards the end. I am deeply grateful to the entire 'Anna' team for making this an unforgettable experience.

SOM: For a film like 'Anna,' it's often difficult to secure producers and theatres for release. How did you manage both?

Islahuddin: 'Anna' symbolises desire. It highlights the gap between ragi and rice and the divide between the haves and have-nots. Basavaraju, our film's producer, who faced hardships in his youth, was approached by our music director and executive producer Nagesh Kandegala and he instantly agreed to produce the film. The film has turned out exceptionally well and the overwhelming response during screenings gave us the confidence that we have a winner. Even though Basavaraju is a first-time producer, we chose to take this leap of faith on our own.

SOM: With four gold medals in journalism and mass communication, a master's from the University of Sunderland and having cleared the National Eligibility Test (NET) from the University Grants Commission (UGC), you could have easily settled as a Professor in a reputed university. Why did you choose theatre and films?

Islahuddin: I've always liked theatre and cinema and so did my friends. I've always valued my friendships and most of my friends are here in my city Mysuru. We are a close-knit group here in Mysuru, bonded by our shared passion for the arts. Our journey began in theatre, but we quickly set our sights on filmmaking. I took the next step by pursuing my master's in filmmaking in the UK, then returned to Mysuru to reconnect with my friends. Our primary goal has always been to build a thriving ecosystem for filmmakers right here in our city.

Poster of the movie Anna.*

SOM: What are your upcoming projects?

Islahuddin: I've been in talks with a few actors, who also happen to be good friends, about directing some scripts I've written. Additionally, there are exciting offers from producers interested in bringing my stories to life with me as the director. There's also an international project in the works, but I'll reveal more when the time is right. Only time will tell. — VNS

Excelled academically

A graduate in Business Management from D. Banumaiah College, Islahuddin went on to pursue a Post Graduate degree in Mass Communication and Journalism at Manasagangothri, where he excelled academically, bagging four gold medals, including the prestigious Star of Mysore Silver Jubilee Endowment Gold Medal in 2006.

His passion for filmmaking led him to secure a scholarship at the University of Sunderland, where he earned a Master's in Media Production in 2008. Upon returning to Mysuru, Islahuddin embarked on a challenging 15-year journey to fulfil his dream of directing films.

63rd Heritage Music Festival at 8th Cross Ganesha Pandal

Endowed with a sonorous voice

On the fifth day of the Ganeshotsava series at 8th Cross, VV Mohalla, young Vid. Vignesh Ishwar from Chennai gave a vocal concert. He was accompanied on violin by Vid. Sayee Rakshith, on mridanga by Vid. K.U. Jayachandra Rao and on kanjira by Vid. B.S. Purushotham.

Endowed with a sonorous voice, Vignesh's music is fresh, energetic and impactful. Nurtured by Krishna, Vignesh has left no stone unturned in learning the intricacies of music, be it concert, manodharma or stage presentation.

Vignesh began the concert with a rare 'Padavini' by Sri Tyagaraja in Salagabhairavi, which was suffixed with bhava-loaded kalpana swaras. Rising to the occasion he then sang 'Lambodaramavalambe' by Mysore Vasudevachar, decorating it beautifully with a neraval at 'SurabhUsura SamsEvita.' The kalpana swaras had shruti aligned sancharas in all the octaves.

Vignesh's approach of singing the previous raga gliding onto the next one is remarkable and suits his style. Purvikalyani was replete with bhava and the composition 'EmEmo bOdhinchina EmAra jEsEvurA' was a welcome piece as it was unheard before.

An array of ragas followed with Kedara, Gowla and Kedaragowla followed by the devaranama 'RAma embO eradaksharda mahimeyanu' by Purandara Dasaru, the charanas of which were set to tune in the above ragas by R.K. Sriramkumar.

Vid. Vignesh Ishwar presenting a Vocal Concert at 8th Cross Ganesha Pandal, VV Mohalla, last evening as part of the 63rd Heritage Music Festival organised by Sri Prasanna Vidya Ganapathi Mandali Charitable (SPVGMC) Trust, Mysuru. He is accompanied by Vid. Sayee Rakshith on violin, Vid. K.U. Jayachandra Rao on mridanga and Vid. B.S. Purushotham on kanjira.

After a quick 'Vara NArada NArAyaNa SmaraNa' in Vijayashree by Sri Tyagaraja, with breathless swaras at the Anupallavi section 'Sharadinduni bhApa' drew him big applause.

The vocalist chose to sing another ragamalika again with Varali, Bhairavi, Athana, Kanada and then Kamas leading onto the Daruvarna 'MAte Malayadhwaja Pandya sanjate,' an unexpected daruvarna in the middle of the concert, which was unforeseen and unusual, reminding the listeners about his Guru Krishna. Neraval at 'Shantodari Shankari Chamundeshwari' was majestic and satisfying. Young violinist Sayee Rakshith's playing throughout was outstanding. Kanyakumari Amma must be congratulated for preparing so many of her disciples for concert performance.

Taniyavartanam by Vid. K.U. Jayachandra Rao, who replaced Umayalpuram Sivaraman, was exemplary and Purushotham did not lag behind in satisfying the listeners with his playing.

A beautiful shloka on Vishnu from the Vishnu Sahasranama 'Shantakaram Bhujaga Shayanam' in Shahana, Kharaharapriya, Bilahari and Bhagesri leading onto M.D. Ramanathan's 'SAgara Shayana VibhO prabhO' was blissful and peaceful.

Vignesh concluded the concert with a Marathi Abhang on Ganapati and Tyagaraja's popular mangalam 'RAmachandrAya janaka '.

While learning from a senior Guru perhaps imitation becomes inevitable. Vignesh follows his Guru not only in singing but also in mannerisms and in the choice of the selection and order of songs planned for his concerts.

Works taken up in Palace premises

Police put brakes on roadside business on Sayyaji Rao Road

Works underway at Mysore Palace premises.

Footpath on Sayyaji Rao Road cleared of street vendors.

Mysuru, Sept. 12 (MK&KS)- With Dasara festivities to commence from Oct. 3, Mysuru city is being spruced up for the Nada Habba, so also Mysore Palace.

Works of laying inter-locking tiles and laying of power cables are being taken up in Mysore Palace premises.

Inter-locking tiles on the left side of the Palace are being removed and old tiles along with new ones are being laid to maintain the level equally and laying of power cables is also taken up.

Various ornamental and flower plants are being nurtured for the flower show and even lighting and other works such as painting and replacing fused bulbs are taken up.

Mysore Palace Board Deputy Director T.S. Subramanya, speaking to Star of Mysore, said that works pertaining to laying of power cables to supply electricity from one side of the Palace to the other side and levelling works by removing old tiles and replacing them with new ones have been taken up which will be completed soon.

Meanwhile, Devaraja Police, who have taken roadside vendors conducting business on the footpaths of Sayyaji Rao Road in front of Devaraja Market seriously, have put brakes to the business since three days.

Vendors had occupied footpaths near K.R. Circle, the entire stretch of Sayyaji Rao Road and cross roads making the footpaths narrow causing difficulties for pedestrians to move about.

Various organisations and even public had complained to the MCC Commissioner and City Police Commissioner in this regard. They had urged to put brakes to footpath vendors conducting business and make footpaths pedestrian-friendly.

Also, with Dasara round the corner, tourists from other States and from abroad are arriving to Mysuru and daily, a large number of people stand on either side of Sayyaji Rao Road to see Dasara jumbos taking part in the Jumboo Savari route familiarisation exercise.

As roadside vendors had occupied the footpaths on either side of Sayyaji Rao Road, it was causing a lot of inconvenience to the public and tourists besides causing problems for pedestrians.

Devaraja Police told SOM that in order to make smooth passage for pedestrians on the footpaths and also to maintain law and order situation, footpath vendors have been cleared.
